REGISTRY
No. S. B. D. 3017
Date 29/10/35

Subject: G.M. Kraslavsky, Suspected Soviet Agent.

Made by: D.S. Tcheremshansky. Forwarded by: D. S. I. Boyne

G.M. Kraslavsky, Suspected Soviet Agent, Soviet citizen of Jewish origin, lawyer by profession, arrived in Shanghai from Manchuria during the autumn of 1931 and soon afterwards established a lawyer office at No. 74 Szechuen Road. He holds a Soviet passport No. R. 6943 and on September 23, 1931 registered himself with the Chinese Authorities as a Soviet citizen. In 1931 Kraslavsky resided together with M.M. Shvets, clerk in the employ of Dalbank (Far Eastern Bank). For some time Kraslavsky worked in partnership with one M.E. Gilcher, a Russian lawyer of Jewish origin connected with Soviet circles, who for some time was acting as legal adviser to the United Petroleum Trust of U.S.S.R. In December, 1933 Kraslavsky severed partnership with Gilcher and established his own office at No. 38 Avenue Edward VII, Rooms 212/213. Kraslavsky is reputed to be a trusted Soviet lawyer and has many friends among local Soviet agents and employees. Kraslavsky's late elder brother was formerly a member of a Soviet Spy Organization on the Chinese Eastern Railway (known as the "Shumsky and Yatchak" organization, the name of two leaders) and during a raid on his house made by the Chinese Police in February 1929 he committed suicide by shooting himself. His younger brother, Mr. Leo S. Kraslavsky, age 27, a Soviet citizen born in Melitopol, arrived in Shanghai on 29.8.35 by s.s. "Dairen Maru" together with his wife, Mrs. Nellie G. Kraslavsky, age 21, born in Manchuria. L.S. Kraslavsky is employed with the Shanghai Leather Products Co., No. 899 Avenue Jeffre Apt. 37, and his wife works in the office of G.M. Kraslavsky.

A relative of G.M. Kraslavsky, one Pavel Tzeman
